To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are currently investigating an armed robbery that occurred in the 300 block of Wyman Park Drive, on October 8, 2022, at about 4:05 PM. At this time, a non-affiliate was running along Wyman Park Drive, toward the Homewood Campus when they were approached from behind by a small four-door sedan, silver in color. As the vehicle reached the non-affiliate’s location, it stopped in the roadway.

At this time, three subjects exited the vehicle, approached the non-affiliate, and forced them into a nearby wooded area. One of the subjects displayed a silver handgun and demanded the non-affiliate’s cell phone. The non-affiliate complied and surrendered their cell phone, along with a wristwatch.

The subjects then returned to the vehicle, and it fled along Wyman Park Drive. The vehicle was last seen turning northbound onto Remington Avenue. The non-affiliate fell to the ground during the altercation and suffered minor injuries.
