To keep you informed:

Public Safety has become aware of a recent pattern of robberies that have occurred in the 3700 – 3800 block of Tudor Arms Avenue. In the most recent incident reported to us today, an affiliate and non-affiliate were walking on a trail in Wyman Park on October 15, 2022 at approximately 3:26PM. They were approached by four suspects. Two of the suspects displayed handguns and told the victims to empty their pockets. As one of the victims was removing items from his pockets he was struck by one of the suspects. The victims surrendered two cell phones and a wallet. The suspects then entered and fled in an electric blue Hyundai Tuscan southbound on Tudor Arms Avenue. The victim that was stuck did not require medical attention. Baltimore Police are investigating these incidents.

Suspect Descriptions:

Suspect #1: male, 5’10–6’0, 150lbs., long braided hair, black hoodie, black mask, dark clothing
