To keep you informed:

In reference to the series of burglaries that occurred earlier this morning at 3501 St. Paul Street (Marylander Apartments), Baltimore Police have positively identified and arrested the suspect.

Homewood Public Safety would like everyone to be aware of these incidents and remind everyone that if you see or hear something suspicious, please contact JHU Public Safety (410-516-7777) or Baltimore Police at (911) immediately.

For further information and tips, please visit the JHU Public Safety website at https://publicsafety.jhu.edu/resources-services/crime-prevention-tips/.

---

To keep you informed:

Public Safety has become aware of series burglaries that have occurred at 3501 St. Paul Street (the Marylander Apartments) on October 20, 2022, between 3:15AM - 5:01AM. The victims include affiliates and non-affiliates. The suspect entered unlocked apartments, the victims notice the suspect, the suspect then runs out of the apartments. The suspect did not say anything, take anything, nor was anyone injured. The apartment building has been searched with negative results. The Baltimore Police Department is investigating these incidents and is currently at the scene.

Suspect Description:
Suspect: male, mid 20’s, athletic build, low buzz type hair cut wearing a long sleeve shirt or green jacket.

Homewood Public Safety would like everyone to be aware of this incident and remind everyone that should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen, observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible.

For further information and tips, please visit the JHU Public Safety website at https://publicsafety.jhu.edu/resources-services/crime-prevention-tips/. When observing suspicious activity, everyone is reminded to contact JHU Public Safety at (410-516-7777) or Baltimore Police (911) immediately.

Johns Hopkins University
Office of Homewood Public Safety
410-516-4600